Governor Slaton's Decision on Leo M. Frank's Appeal for a Commutation of the Sentence may be rendered Monday, although it is possible, it will not be forthcoming before Tuesday morning.

The Governor left his Office at the Capitol Saturday afternoon at 1 o'Clock and went to his home where he immediately plunged into his Study of the Record and evidence in the Case. He was still engaged in a consideration of the Case, late Saturday afternoon, and was considering it Point by Point.

Governor Slaton intimated Saturday that it might be necessary for him to spend a portion of Sunday on the Case. As soon as he reaches a Decision, he will prepare his Opinion setting forth the grounds on which he bases the Decision.
